On the above date at approximately 1055 hrs, my partner (Officer Trujillo, R #136) and I (Officer Nam #131) were riding our bikes east bound on the south curb of Hollywood Blvd when we observed a unknown subject lying on the sidewalk in front of 6522 Hollywood Blvd a closed former business known as "Los Angeles Contemporary Exhibit". The subject was lying on the sidewalk causing east bound pedestrian traffic to veer around the lying subject. Upon further investigation on the subject, we identified the subject to be a black female (later identified as Hall, Anbria DOB: 08-02-90). We made contact with the subject and gave her a verbal warning for 41.18 (d) LAMC, sleeping on the sidewalk. We warned her to pick up her personal belonging and move from the location. She nodded in agreement. We left the location continuing our patrol of the area.

At approximately 1105 hours we returned to the location and observed the same subject lying at the same spot. We observed additional pedestrians having to veer to walk around the subject.
